As a student in NYU Shanghai, I pledge that:

- I will perform honestly all my academic obligations. I will not represent the words, works, or ideas of others as my own; will not cheat; and will not seek to mislead faculty or other academic officers in their evaluation of my course work or in any other academic affairs.
- I will behave with decorum and civility, and with respectful regard for all members of the University—faculty, staff, and fellow students— our guests, and members of our wider communities.
- I will abide by NYU Shanghai and by NYU rules of conduct and policies on academic integrity and by the special requirements of any individual course of study or other academic activity.
- I will endeavor earnestly to uphold the values, standards, and ideals on which our university community depends and call on others to do so.

Group Project - Overview

- Presentations: May 4 & May 6
- Final Report Due: May 10 (11:59 PM, Brightspace)

Grading component:

- 10%: Group Presentation
- 20%: Individual Mini Case Study
- 20%: Group Project Report

Group Project Presentation - Logistics

- 6 groups per class (sign-up opens shortly)
- 10 minutes MAX per group
 - Strict cutoff & grading penalty
- Slides due: 11:59 PM the day before (Brightspace)
- Peer Feedback Requirement (due May 7 at 11:59PM):
 - Each student emails at least one group
 - Include all group members (no need to cc me)
 - Upload screenshot/email for credit (Brightspace)

Group Project Presentation - Expectations

- Not every member must speak
→ but everyone must contribute
 - Grading is group based
- Focus on:
 - Big picture, not every detail
 - Clear case selection
 - Coherent approach & plan
 - Areas for feedback
- Grading based on two aspects
 - Substantive: whether show good progress & efforts, good plan
 - Style: recall the earlier workshop on “how to give a good presentation”

Group Project Report - Structure

- Components
 - Word count (for the entire report & for each mini case study)
 - Abstract
 - Introduction (question + motivation)
 - Analytical framework*; Case selection*
 - 4/5 mini case studies (individual-based)
 - Comparative synthesis & analysis
 - Conclusion
 - List of references
 - Contribution note*

Group Project Report - Length and Word Count

- Mini case study: ~800 words each
- Entire report: < 6,000 words (strict)
 - Up to 7,000 words for groups of 5
- Word count excludes
 - List of references
 - Figures, tables, diagrams, etc.
- No Minimum Word Requirement
 - Quality > Quantity

Group Project Report - Format

- Font: Times New Roman
- Font size: 12-point
- Spacing: Double-spaced
- Margins: 1 inch
- Citations: Any consistent & standard academic style

Group Project Report - Expectations

- Clear research questions
- Use of course concepts/ideas/intuitions/theories, ...
 - Institutions, incentives, state-market relations, etc.
- In-depth analyses of specific cases
 - Avoid broad & general discussion
- Use official documents & primary resources
 - Avoid purely summarizing existing studies & analyses
- Explain
 - Why different/similar dynamics across cases
 - How cases are connected
 - How/whether can we extrapolate to other cases/regions?
- Focus on explanation, not description

Group Project Report – Common Pitfalls

- Four separate economy summaries
- No clear comparative argument
- Ignoring cross-case linkages
- Topics too broad or vague

Deep & Narrow >>> Shallow & Wide

Group Project Report – Final Advice

- Keep topic focused and comparable
- Use concepts explicitly
- Prioritize the comparative section

Good projects describe cases.

Great projects explain differences.

Group Project – Feedback & Support

- I'm happy to give targeted feedback before submission
- For fairness:
 - I will not read drafts
- Please:
 - Summarize & send key questions or concerns
 - Specify what feedback you want
- Expected turnaround: ~2–3 days

Additional Logistics

- Check attendance records on Brightspace
 - Attendance for presentations are required
 - Email if anything is off
- Expect & fill optional participation self-report
- Look for email on presentation sign-up
- Any questions?

Thank You!
